Clan Analogue Recordings Activities during 2011/2012

Releases

During 2011-2012 Clan Analogue released an album and EP by Valley Forge, along with the Severed Heads tribute compilation Headspace.

CA040: Valley Forge – Artificial Heart

The Valley Forge album Artificial Heart was released in August 2011, following on from the Valley Forge EP Follow Suit, released in late 2010. The album included the single 'Wayfaring Stranger' featuring vocals by Kamahl. Several other tracks were made available via the Clan Analogue Soundcloud page in advance of the album's release.

"A trip-hop sci-fi soundtrack, merging sinister technology with spiritual soundscapes... Artificial Heart is an excursion into our own warped, inconsistent world." Rave Magazine

CA040W: Valley Forge with Kamahl – Wayfaring Stranger

The Wayfaring Stranger EP included a radio mix and remix by Andy Rantzen of the track 'Wayfaring Stranger' from Valley Forge's Artificial Heart album, along with several other tracks not available on the album. A filmclip for 'Wayfaring Stranger' was shown on Rage on ABC TV and won the Music Video Award at the 'Harold's Shorts' Short Film Festival at the Harold Park Hotel in Glebe.

"An eerie downbeat crawl of vocoders, gliding hiphop-inflected rhythms and shimmering electronics, dark pop hooks lurking just beneath the surface" Cyclic Defrost

CA041: Headspace: A Tribute to Severed Heads – various artists

Headspace was released in May 2012, and promoted in conjunction with the 20th anniversary of Clan Analogue. The album contained 18 cover versions of Severed Heads tracks by Clan Analogue artists, with contributions from international guests Scanner (UK) and Little Nobody (Japan). The tracks by Aeriae and Data Transmit were made available in advance of the album's release on the Clan Analogue Soundcloud page. A filmclip for Kazumichi Grime and Andrew Jones's version of 'Petrol' was shown on Rage on ABC TV. The album was launched with events in both Sydney and Melbourne.

"Who better than Australian collective Clan Analogue to pay tribute to Severed Heads? The Sydney pioneers blended synth-pop and industrial with dark techno over three decades, and here they get reinterpreted by their diverse acolytes." Stack

Distribution Arrangements

Clan Analogue continues to release music in physical format through MGM Distribution and in non-physical format through US aggregator The Orchard.

Bandcamp

Clan Analogue launched a Bandcamp page in early 2012, making available the Clan Recordable samplers originally released in 2001 and 2002. The Headspace compilation was also released via the Bandcamp page as an additional download purchase option, in addition to its release through MGM.

Online presence

Clan Analogue continues to expand its online community through its Facebook, Twitter and Soundcloud pages. The Facebook group page has over 450 members, the Twitter account has over 140 followers and the Soundcloud page has over 90 followers. The Clan Analogue Soundcloud group has 80 members.

The Clan Analogue Youtube channel has expanded its content, with filmclips by Clan Analogue artists and live clips from Clan Analogue events.

The Clan Analogue website currently averages 75 hits per day and comes up high in Google searches on "Australian electronic music".

Events

Headspace launches in Sydney and Melbourne

The Headspace compilation was launched at Severed Heads tribute parties held in both Sydney and Melbourne.

The Melbourne launch was held at Horse Bazaar on Saturday the 26th of May, with performances by Actual Russian Brides and Philosophy Of Sound and a DJ set from DJ Reductionist. Visuals were provided by Object_State.

The Sydney launch was held at the Sly Fox Hotel on Saturday the 16th of June, with performances by Actual Russian Brides, Telafonica, Lunar Module, Aeriae and Data Transmit and DJ sets from DJ Foxbat, Baby Swindle and Michael MD.
