Clan Analogue Victoria's Activities during 2016-2017

Clan Analogue's Electronic Weekend at 303 – September 2016

Clan Analogue held a series of three events over the weekend of 23rd, 24th and 25th of September at Bar 303 in Northcote which were included as part of the Melbourne Fringe Festival under the umbrella title of Clan Analogue's Electronic Weekend at 303. The specific events were Kill Climate Deniers, Analogue Redux and Michael Mildren's Music Non-Stop. All three events had good media coverage and were well-attended.

Kill Climate Deniers – Friday 23rd of September, 2016

The Kill Climate Deniers album by Reuben Ingall and David Finnigan, released by Clan Analogue in September 2016, was launched on the Friday night of Clan Analogue's Electronic Weekend at 303. The event included a dramatised reading of the 'Kill Climate Deniers' play by David Finnigan, augmented with multimedia elements, and live sets by Iubar Project, Reuben Ingall and KOshowKo.

Analogue Redux – Saturday, 24th of September, 2016

Clan Analogue's newest compilation album, Analogue Redux, was launched on the Saturday night of Clan Analogue's Electronic Weekend at 303. This event began with an open jam session, the latest in Clan Analogue's 'Gear Shift' series, where anyone from the public was able to participate by bringing along some electronic music gear with which to jam. Following the jam session was a series of half-hour showcase performances by artists included on the Analogue Redux compilation.

These artists were Cocoon, Random Acts of Elevator Music, BluNjin, Miles Cosmo, Wonderfeel, Ming and Damian Tangram.

Michael Mildren's Music Non-Stop – Sunday, 25th of September

Michael Mildren's Music Non-Stop was a continuous live set by Michael Mildren running for twelve hours from midday to midnight. Michael improvised throughout the session and was joined at various times throughout the day and into the evening by guests including Max Mildren, Michael Sheridan, Andrew Duffield, Anita Paul, Chris Rule, Steve Williams and Steve Law.

Broadmeadows Street Festival – Sunday, 9th of April, 2017

Clan Analogue secured funding for the second year running from the City of Hume to present a stage at the Broadmeadows Street Festival on the 9th of April, 2017. Michael Mildren, Kable54 and Damian Tangram were scheduled to perform. However unfortunately the event was cancelled on the day due to bad weather.
